

Using Data for Inspiration and Feedback (and Avoiding Data-Driven Torture)

Lori Taylor, Public Service & Administration

David Cairns, Department of Geology

Heather Lench, Psychological & Brain Sciences

The Department Head Council (DHC)

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

- All sitting department heads (DH) at Texas A&M are members of the DHC
 - The DHC meets as needed to share ideas and strategies
 - One DH from each College represents their College on the DHC Steering Committee

The DHC Steering Committee

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

- Meets monthly with the Provost regarding issues of concern for Department Heads
 - The Chair of the Steering Committee meets monthly with the Dean of Faculties
 - Identifies members to represent the DHs on university-wide committees
 - Works to solve problems on behalf of the DHs
 - Today's presentation stems from work by a DHC Steering Committee subcommittee on leveraging Texas A&M data systems to empower data-driven decision-making

Presentation Outline

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

- What do I need to know as a new administrator?
 - What data resources are available to answer those questions?
 - How do I use data for change?

What Do I Need to Know?

Questions about Faculty

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

- Who are my most productive faculty?
 - How can I measure productivity?
 - Are there salary anomalies that can't be explained?
 - Are my teaching loads distributed fairly?
 - Are any of my faculty outliers with respect to student success?

Questions about Students

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

- Where do my students come from?
 - Which high schools?
 - What about transfer students?
 - Graduate students?
 - Where do my students go?
 - Graduates?
 - Transfers out?
 - Are the answers different for under-represented students?
 - How diverse are my degree programs anyway?

Questions about Scheduling

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY

- What slows time to degree?
 - What electives are likely to be oversubscribed? Undersubscribed?
 - Would it be better to offer this course in the spring?
 - Are there any courses that push students out of the major?
 - How big a room will I need?

Purpose Statement

Texas A&M University is committed to accountability in its pursuit of excellence. The university expects to be held to the highest standards in its use of resources and in the quality of the educational experience. In fact, this commitment is a part of the fabric of the institution from its founding and is a key component of its mission statement (as approved by the Board of Regents and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board), its aspirations found in Vision 2020 (approved by the Board of Regents in 1999), and its current strategic plan, Action 2015: Education First (approved by the Chancellor in December 2010).
